Peace Hopes Revive as AI Tries to Recover

Markets are bouncing Monday morning after a rough Friday.

Main drivers:

-  Reports Iran ended military operations against Israel
-  Chip stocks stabilize after last week's AI scare
-  Strong jobs data keeps rate fears alive

Futures:

- Dow Futures: +109 (+0.2%)
- S&P 500 Futures: +0.6%
- Nasdaq Futures: +1.3%

Tech is leading the rebound.

🔥 Friday's Selloff — What Actually Happened?

Friday wasn't just one thing.

Markets got hit by:

1. Strong jobs report
2. Higher bond yields
3. Broadcom disappointment spilling into AI

Result:

- 📉 S&P had its worst day of the year
- 📉 Nasdaq sold off hard
- 📉 Semiconductor stocks got crushed

But today looks more like stabilization than panic.

🤖 AI Trade: Recovery Attempt

After last week's chip shakeout...

Big names are trying to bounce:

- Broadcom
 - Micron Technology
 - Nvidia

Middle East — Markets Get a Little Relief

overnight headline:

Reports said Iran announced the end of military operations against Israel.

That helped calm markets.

BUT...

Reality is still messy:

- New strikes continued overnight
- Peace talks remain uncertain
- Reports suggest negotiations may be getting harder

Current market read:

-  Conflict cooling
 -  Deal not guaranteed

Oil / Inflation Corner

Oil gave back some earlier gains.

- Brent → ~$94

Still elevated.

Why traders care:

Higher oil

→ higher inflation

→ fewer rate cuts

That's becoming the macro battle right now.

Fed Watch

Friday's strong jobs report changed expectations.

Market now thinks:

✗ Immediate cuts less likely

● Higher-for-longer becoming more realistic

This week becomes huge.

This Week's Data Watch

Major reports:

📌 CPI (Inflation)

📌 PPI (Producer Inflation)

Markets want to know:

Is oil actually showing up in prices?

Stock Movers

● Southwest Airlines

● Delta Air Lines

(higher fuel concerns)

● Eli Lilly and Company

(weight-loss + health trial optimism)

What traders are watching

1. Can chips reclaim momentum?
 2. CPI / inflation data
 3. Oil direction
 4. Iran headlines
 5. Treasury yields
