- Atlanta FED GDPNow Forecast (3.9%) Previous (3.9%) (10:30AM)
- FOMC Member Bowman Speaks (12:00PM)
- Salesforce ($CRM) stock gained 1.7% after the software company lifted its fiscal 2026 revenue and adjusted income guidance, with the upbeat outlook helped by projections for strong growth in demand for the group's AI-enhanced agent platform.
- Five Below ($FIVE) stock surged 4.2% after the value retailer reported third-quarter earnings that significantly beat analyst expectations, driven by robust comparable sales growth and successful store expansion.
- Nvidia ($NVDA) stock rose 0.4% after Raymond James reported that the odds the chipmaker will be allowed to send some of its cutting-edge artificial intelligence chips to China have "meaningfully increased."
- Dollar General ($DG) stock rose 2.3% after the cut-price retailer lifted its annual profit forecast, banking on resilient demand at its discount stores, as well as its efforts to cut costs and reduce inventory-related damages.
- Snowflake ($SNOW) stock slumped 8.6% after the cloud-based data storage stock provided a slightly disappointing outlook for its product revenue growth for the January quarter.

- Meta Platforms ($META) stock rose 0.8% after the European Commission opened a new antitrust investigation into the tech giant over its rollout of artificial intelligence features in WhatsApp, reflecting rising scrutiny of Big Tech's use of generative AI.
- Hormel Foods ($HRL) stock gained 7.9% after the food producer issued an optimistic fiscal 2026 outlook that overshadowed a challenging fourth quarter marked by significant impairment charges.
- PayPal ($PYPL) stock fell 1.1% after JP Morgan lowered its rating on the payments giant to "neutral" from "overweight."

Market Overview — Thursday, December 4, 2025

U.S. Futures Edge Higher as Markets Await Key Data & Fed Meeting

Date: Thursday — Ahead of the December Fed policy meeting

At 05:35 ET, U.S. equity futures saw a slight lift:

- Dow Jones Futures: +0.1% (+50 pts)
- S&P 500 Futures: +0.1% (+5 pts)
- Nasdaq 100 Futures: +0.1% (+18 pts)

This follows Wednesday's gains as traders continue positioning for a 90%+ chance of a 25 bps Fed rate cut next week.

 Labor Market in Focus Weekly Jobless Claims Ahead

- Expected: 219,000 (slightly above last week's 216,000)
- Last week marked a 7-month low, indicating very low layoffs but soft hiring demand.

 ADP Data Recap

- Private payrolls: -32,000 in November
- A sharp miss vs. expectations, bolstering the case for rate cuts.

 Fed Sentiment Turning Dovish

- Fed officials have already argued there's sufficient labor cooling for easing.
- New speculation around Kevin Hassett (perceived dove) as a future Fed Chair adds additional rate-cut optimism.

 Corporate Highlights Salesforce (CRM) — +1.7% Pre-market

- Boosted fiscal 2026 revenue and adjusted income guidance.
- Seeing strong demand for its AI-enhanced agent platform, especially among large enterprises.

 Five Below (FIVE) — +4.2%

- Big Q3 beat driven by:
 - Robust comps
 - Strong store openings

 Snowflake (SNOW) — -8.6%

- Dropped sharply after issuing a soft outlook for January quarter product revenue.

 Meta Platforms (META) — +0.8%

- EC launches an antitrust investigation into WhatsApp's new AI features.

 Crude Oil Slightly Higher

- Brent: +0.4% → $62.90
- WTI: +0.5% → $59.25

Key Drivers:

- Ukrainian strike on Russia's Druzhba pipeline revives supply disruption concerns.
 - U.S.-Russia peace talks showed no progress, keeping geopolitical risk elevated.
